

How to read John...

Then John gave this testimony: ‘I saw the Spirit come down from heaven as a dove and remain on him. And I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptise with water told me, “The man on whom you see the Spirit come down and remain is the one who will baptise with the Holy Spirit.”

John 1:32-33

μένω: to stay, to remain

Turning round, Jesus saw them following and asked,
'What do you want?'

They said, 'Rabbi' (which means 'Teacher'), 'where are you staying?'

'Come,' he replied, 'and you will see.'

So they went and saw where he was staying, and they spent that day with him.

John 1:38-39

They said, 'Rabbi' (which means 'Teacher'), 'where are you staying?'

'Come,' he replied, 'and you will see.'

So they went and saw where he was staying, and they stayed that day with him.

So when the Samaritans came to him, they urged him to stay with them, and he stayed two days. And because of his words many more became believers.

John 4:40-41

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood
remains in me, and I in them.

John 6:56

‘Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood
remains in me, and I in them’.

John 6:56

‘If you hold to my teaching, you are really my disciples’.

John 8:31

‘Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood
remains in me, and I in them’.

John 6:56

‘If you hold to my teaching, you are really my disciples’.

John 8:31

‘The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you.’.

John 14:17

Jesus answered them, 'Destroy this temple, and I will raise it again in three days.'

They replied, 'It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and you are going to raise it in three days?' But the temple he had spoken of was his body. After he was raised from the dead, his disciples recalled what he had said.

John 2:19-22

Then one of them, named Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, spoke up, 'You know nothing at all! You do not realise that it is better for you that one man die for the people than that the whole nation perish.'

John 11:49-50

Peter turned and saw that the disciple whom Jesus loved was following them. (This was the one who had leaned back against Jesus at the supper and had said, 'Lord, who is going to betray you?') When Peter saw him, he asked, 'Lord, what about him?'

This is the disciple who testifies to these things and who wrote them down. We know that his testimony is true.

John 21:20-21, 24

Jesus performed many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not recorded in this book. But these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:30-31
