

The parable of the good Samaritan

How often do you ask the follow up question?

‘Let me live my life to leave a legacy a story of your grace and what you’ve done in me let me shine a light, a ray into the night im holding nothing back take all you want from me

‘and when they look at me what I want them to see is that my heart looks like your heart in the end
